This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

HISTORICAL SKETCH.

This Association has now entered upon its sixteenth year.

A meeting of citizens to establish a Reading Room, and to form a Young Men's Association, was held in the Common Council Room, in Chicago, January 30, 1841. W. L. Newbury presided, and Peter Page and J. W. Underwood were Secretaries. Resolutions were adopted in favor of the objects of the meeting, and pledging those present to the support of the enterprise. A Committee, of which Mark Skinner was Chairman, was appointed, to solicit subscriptions, and to draft a Constitution. At an adjourned meeting, one week later, (February 6,) a Constitution was adopted, in which, the objects of the Association were declared to be, "To establish and maintain a Reading Room and Library; to procure Literary and Scientific Lecturers, and to promote the Intellectual Improvement of its Members." The first Board of Officers was elected February 10. WALTER L. NEWBURY was chosen President; MARK SKINNER, Vice President; HUGH T. DICKEY, Corresponding Secretary, and among the Managers were PETER PAGE, N. B. JUDD, WM. L. CHURCH, and W. S. GURNEE. A code of By-Laws was adopted at a meeting held a few days later. A Reading Room, located on the corner of Lake and Clark Streets, and leased for $125 per annum, was fitted up, under the direction of Mr. Page, and was furnished with the principal Newspapers and Periodicals of the day. A Library was immediately commenced by generous donations of books from individuals. S. LISLE SMITH, W. L. NEWBURY, W. B. OGDEN, W. H. CLARKE, and DR. S. SAWYER, were among the largest contributors. The Association sprung at once into a vigorous and healthy existence, and thus early did the young men, who had sought a home in this city, provide for their own intellectual improvement and culture, and establish an Institution which was to extend its beneficent influences to the thousands who were so soon to follow in their foot-steps.

In the Winter succeeding its organization, the Association listened to its first Lecture, which was delivered by WM. H. BROWN, Esq., upon "The Social and Legal Rights of Women." The subsequent Lectures were given by Dr. Brainard and others.

The Association was incorporated in January, 1851. Up to this time it enjoyed a fair increase of prosperity. Little had been done in the matter of procuring Lectures, but the Library had been gradually increasing, and the Reading room well patronized.

About the time of its incorporation, a fresh impulse was given to the Association, and an increased interest began to be felt in all its departments. An excellent course of Lectures was given by prominent clergymen and citizens of the place, in the Winter of 1850–51. Since then the Association has secured the services of most of the best lecturers in the country. Each successive course of Lectures has drawn greater crowds, and awakened greater interest than the previous one. Large additions have been made each year to the Library. The Reading Room has been the daily place of resort for an increasingly large number of young men. A Debating Club recently organized in connection with the Association, is in a flourishing condition. About twelve hundred young men are at present connected with the Association. Thus has the Association kept pace with the rapid growth which has characterized every interest and pursuit in our flourishing city.

The Association now takes possession of its new Rooms on Washington Street. With a past that is secure, with thanks for the generous support and confidence of their fellow-citizens, and a reliance upon the continuance of that support and confidence, its Officers and Members confidently look forward to a future which shall be honorable to the Association, and to the great and growing Metropolis of the West.

CHICAGO, FEBRUARY 21, 1856.
